Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur'I wish I could get a seat on the tube I hadnt eaten that entire bag of Maltesers I could meet a man whose hobbies include washing up and monogamyHeather Hamilton is always wishing for things. Not just big stuff - like world peace or for a date with Brad Pitt - but little, everyday wishes, made without thinking. With her luck, she knows theyll never come trueUntil one day she buys some heather from a gypsy. Suddenly the bad hair days stop; a handsome American answers her ad for a housemate; and she starts seeing James - The Perfect Man who sends her flowers, excels in the bedroom, and isnt afraid to say I love you But are these wishes-come-true a blessing or a curse? And is there such a thing as too much foreplay?Revue de presseNobody does it quite like Alexandra Potter (Daily Mirror)A touching, funny love-story (Company magazine)Always perceptive, often funny, never dull (Heat magazine)Sharp, witty dialogue (The Scotsman)Slickly written and often very funny (The Times)This warm and funny story... appeals to the romantic lurking in all of us (Sunday Mirror on CALLING ROMEO)A cracking summer read (Heat magazine on CALLING ROMEO)Essential reading (Company magazine on CALLING ROMEO)PRAISE FOR PREVIOUS ALEXANDRA POTTER TITLES:'Feel-good fiction full of unexpected twists and turns' (OK! magazine)Présentation de l'auteur'I wish I could get a seat on the tube I hadn't eaten that entire bag of Maltesers I could meet a man whose hobbies include washing up and monogamyHeather Hamilton is always wishing for things.
