Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurA gorgeous tale of friendship and love from Sunday Times bestseller Erica James.Ashcombe was the most beautiful house Saskia had ever seen as a little girl. A rambling pink cottage on the edge of the Suffolk village of Melbury Green, its enchanting garden provided a fairy-tale playground of seclusion, a perfect sanctuary to hide from the tragedy which shattered her childhood.Now an adult, Saskia is still living at Ashcombe and as a book restorer devotes her days tending to the broken, battered books that find their way to her, daydreaming about the people who had once turned their pages. When she discovers a notebook carefully concealed in an old Bible - and realising someone has gone to a great deal of trouble to hide a story of their own - Saskia finds herself drawn into a heart-rending tale of wartime love...Revue de presseOne to curl up with and enjoy. (WOMAN HOME)The twists and turns in this unconventional love story will keep you guessing until the end. (WOMAN)This is a gentle, well-written read, stuffed full of engaging characters you'll root for from the start (DAILY MAIL)Beautiful and heart-warming (SUN ON SUNDAY FABULOUS MAGAZINE)Prsentation de l'diteurA gorgeous tale of friendship and love from Sunday Times bestseller Erica James.Ashcombe was the most beautiful house Saskia had ever seen as a little girl.
