Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThis edition includes 10 illustrations. With his novel series Parades End recently adapted into a critically acclaimed miniseries, Ford Madox Fords The Good Soldier, considered his finest novel, tells an equally passionate and tragic tale of adultery, mental illness and suicide in the fashionable sites of Europes spas, among a pair of sophisticated couples involved in relationships whose gloss is starting to fade. Fords dark subject matter and frank depiction of situations normally considered too taboo for discussion in the polite society of the pre-World War I era may have been shocking, but they were an honest reflection of the authors own turbulent life.Prsentation de l'diteurThis edition includes 10 illustrations.
